

Style

JUNE 2010

beautiful
bronzers

BEACH BABES

sexy

swimwear

revealed

style
man special

SUPER SLIMMER!

How one woman shed 14
stone

FAVOURITE

THINGS

AL FRESCO

Celebrate summer by dusting down the picnic rug and enjoying some open air theatre. The Cambridge Touring Theatre is bringing Robin Hood to a spot near you soon and the family show promises to be a funny and musical romp through Sherwood Forest with Robin Hood and his band of merry men. The rave reviews the production has attracted mean this is not to be missed. Some of the performances offer a workshop pre-performance giving children from 5 to 12 years a chance to meet the characters and learn some moves and songs. Pack a picnic, and a jumper, and see the show at: Houghton Mill, Friday, June 18th, 6pm to 8pm (workshop 4.30pm) and Milton Country Park, Saturday, June 26th, 3pm to 5pm (workshop 1.30pm).

■ For full details and to book tickets, see www.cambridge touringtheatre.co.uk. Adults £10, children, £8, family £35.

Striped picnic rug, £15, Bhs

Get out and about and indulge the kids in a little bit of what they fancy

Compiled by Lisa Millard

FOOTBALL FRENZY

Make the most of the World Cup by adding a touch of footie frenzy to picnics and parties. These Ladybird Football goodies from Talking Tables have a slight retro look to them, bringing a stylish touch to supporting the big sporting event. We like the bunting, and the rattles promise to be popular with the kids for the noise factor alone. Football bunting, £5, and rattles, £2.75, from www.talkingtables.co.uk

SUMMER CAMP

Wysing Arts Centre in Bourn is running a series of weekend art camps for families. Supporting Wysing's current theme of exploring The Improbable, the camps include a workshop led by Jacky-Sutton Adam, an expert in foraging and wild food, who will take families on a wild food hunt followed by, weather permitting, a communal experimental cooking session outdoors. This camp is on Sunday, June 27th, from 2pm to 5pm, for accompanied children aged five years and above. Wysing is well worth a visit with the children and the den, built by kids and families last summer, is great fun.

There's lots of open ground to explore, regular installations and a weekend Art Treasure Hunt linked to the current exhibition inviting children to interact with the art and landscape at Wysing. And the really good news is that it's all free.

■ See the website for full details at www.wysingartscentre.org

